Dear agents of the United States and Representatives on the FOIAAC, In my previous email message, I meant to cite the following testimony of Director Melanie Pustay before the U.S. Senate Committee on the Judiciary on March 13, 2012 (page 10) as the source of her declaration and publication of the fugitive and secret FOIA regulation of the DOJ: <http://www.judiciary.senate.gov/imo/media/doc/12-3-13PustayTestimony.pdf>. Dear agents of the United States and Representatives on the FOIAAC, Before and without publication in the Federal Register and codification in the Code of Federal Regulations, the Director of the OIP named Melanie Pustay appears to have engaged in the declaration and publication of a fugitive and secret FOIA regulation that entitles the DOJ to receive and respond to FOIA requests and appeals via the "eFOIA Portal" webpage of the internet website of the DOJ (see <http://www.justice.gov/oip/efoia-portal.html>). The execution of such fugitive and secret FOIA regulation was telephonically (202-514-3642) confirmed to me today by a person within the OIP who identified himself as "Jonathan Breyan" and titled himself "attorney advisor" and "FOIA counselor of the day".
