Dear agents of the United States, Shall it be considered just a coincidence or suspicious that the Superintendent of Documents (SOD), under the direction of the Director of the Government Publishing Office (DGPO), (44 USC 4101(a)(2)), the Administrative Committee of the Federal Register (ACFR) (see 1 CFR 8.6(a)(3)) and the Director of the Federal Register (DFR) (see 1 CFR 8.6(b)) are collectively concealing from "FDsys" (see "gpo.gov") all pre-1996 editions of Chapter III of Title 1 of the CFR when it just so happens that the Administrative Conference of the United States (ACUS) published, codified and preserved its 1973-1993 recommendations and formal statements as perpetual rules and regulations in the 1974-1995 editions of Chapter III of Title 1 of the CFR?! What other un-repealed rules and regulations do the SOD, the DGPO, the ACFR, the ACFR and the DFR want to collectively keep secret from the public? Sincerely, Brady Eames
